

Mus 223 • Weekly Assignment #5

[~75 points]

Part I: Non-Diatonic Scales Write the following as scales. Provide labels for the scales when indicated. Do NOT use a key signature. [4 points]

1. D minor blues scale. [2 points]

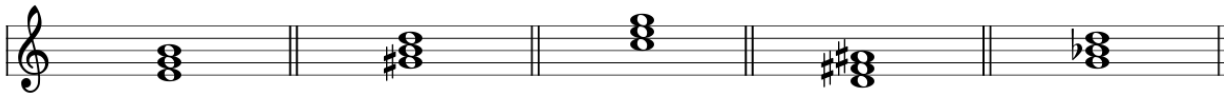

3. E major blues scale [2 points]

Part II: Chord Symbols [35 points]

1. Write the chord symbol for each triad above the staff

[10 points]

2. Write the chord symbol for each seventh chord above the staff

[10 points]

3. Extended harmonies. (All chords are in root position)

[15 points]

- In the upper blank, write a basic chord symbol for the triad or seventh chord that is the foundation of the chord, ignoring any extensions and alterations.
- In the lower blank, write a detailed chord symbol that includes the extensions and alterations.

_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Part III: Voicing chord progressions [12 points]

- In the top staff, notate the harmonies given with lead sheet symbols, unvoiced.
- In the grand staff, voice the chords using 3 notes in the treble staff and 1 in the bass, adding idiomatic extensions.
 - Follow typical jazz realizations for four voices: your three right hand voices should be the third, seventh, and ninth/thirteenth of each chord. The root will be in the bass.
- Don't forget to add any accidentals implied by the chord symbol.

Part IV: Analysis – In each blank, provide a chord symbol that includes extensions and alterations. [22 points]

*"Sweet Georgia Brown" by Ben Bernie, Ben Bernie, Maceo Pinkard (1925, public domain)
Arrangement adapted from Digby Ram*

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. The single staff shows a melodic line with various intervals and a final half note. The grand staff accompaniment includes a more complex right hand with some tied notes and a bass line with a few notes and rests.

The third system of musical notation features a single staff with a melody that includes a triplet. The grand staff accompaniment has a right hand with chords and a left hand with a simple bass line.
